

RoHS Statement RF elements s.r.o.

The RoHS directive provides consumer protection.

The RoHS directive refers to the restriction of the use of hazardous electronic substances in electrical and equipment. As amended by 2011/65/EU, it is legally binding from 6/28/2011 and replaces the previous directive 2002/95/EC. With the publication of Delegated Directive (EU) 2015/863, the list of substances that have come under restrictions has been expanded. It can be used from 22 July 2019.

RF elements s.r.o. declare that the company is aware of the obligations arising from this European directive and adheres to it. In this context, RF elements s.r.o. has asked all its suppliers to also comply with the relevant requirements.
